KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Hanna Nussair

United Nations Foundation

After graduating from State College of Florida Collegiate School in 2017, Hanna attended Florida Gulf Coast University where she graduated summa cum laude with a B.A. degree in Communication Studies and a double minor in Political Science and Global Studies. She obtained her Master of Human Rights degree with a concentration in Global Gender Studies and Arabic at University of Minnesota's Humphrey School of Public Affairs. While at Humphrey, she served as Graduate Communication Coordinator for the University of Minnesota Human Rights Program and was a Foreign Language Area Studies Fellow in the Arabic language.

Hanna has worked on international projects both during her academic career and after graduation. Most notably, she worked with a refugee support organization, LESS ONLUS, in Naples, Italy, and was a secondary school teaching assistant in Madrid, Spain. Her core professional work focuses on gender equality for women and girls in marginalized communities, and she has experience working on issues such as gender-based violence, women's economic empowerment, social inclusion, and education. During the final year of graduate school, Hanna started her role as a Communication Officer for the international NGO Women for Women International in Washington, D.C. In this role, Hanna led digital campaigns to promote women's economic and social power in conflict-affected regions, and she has been able to work with women in Afghanistan, Iraq, Ukraine, Ethiopia, Syria, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Nigeria and more.

During Hanna's time at FGCU, she was vice president and competitive team trainer for the FGCU Model UN team, and she led FGCU's competitive team during their first national conference in New York City. Over the last few years, she's been instrumental in helping the Naples Council on World Affairs and FGCU prepare strong committee chairs for SWFLMUN during a time when that was particularly challenging. She also volunteers her free time at Model UN Conferences around the world, such as her work with the University of St. Gallen's international Model UN in St. Gallen, Switzerland and the United Nations Association's Intergenerational Model UN.

Today, Hanna works for the United Nations Foundation as a Communication and Advocacy associate for Data2X, an initiative that works to improve the quality, availability, and use of gender data to make a practical difference in the lives of women and girls. In this role, she is able to work closely with experts in the gender equality movement worldwide and to participate in key international moments such as the United Nations General Assembly and the UN Commission on the Status of Women. We're thrilled to have her back this year as our Keynote Speaker.

The RALPH BUNCHE Award

Dr. Ralph Johnson Bunche

b. 7 Aug 1904 (Detroit, MI)

d. 9 Dec 1971 (New York, NY)

Ralph Bunche was largely raised by his grandmother, who moved the family to Los Angeles in 1918. Ralph was an excellent student and became valedictorian of his high school, then graduated summa cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa from UCLA in 1927. He attended graduate school at Harvard where he earned both a master's degree and a doctorate in political science.

While still in grad school, Ralph began teaching at Howard University in Washington D.C. where he was professor and founding head of the Political Science Department. He then began working for the Office of Strategic Services (a predecessor to the CIA) and in 1943 was transferred to the U. S. State Department. In 1945 he played an integral role in the drafting of the charter for the newly formed United Nations organization.

Dr. Bunche went on to become chief mediator between the Israelis and Palestinians and for this work was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1950, making him the first African American to be so honored. In 1963, he was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom by President John F. Kennedy. He was appointed Under-Secretary-General of the UN in 1968.

The Ralph Bunche Award was originally established in 2018 by Richard Clemens with a $2,000 donation to which a few others added to bring it to $2,750. In 2020 it increased to $5,500 and became our top award. This year, at $6,500, it remains our top award.

Didn't win an award? IT'S NOT TOO LATE!!!

Seniors who have been accepted to FGCU and submitted a position paper may apply for one of three

Prof. Richard W. Coughlin MUN Scholarships

Florida Gulf Coast University has graciously extended to our participants up to three $2,500 scholarships and Naples Council on World Affairs will add $500 for books and other educational expenses!

The awards will be paid in two $1,250 installments toward the Fall and Spring semesters of the freshman year, with the additional $500 check paid directly to the winners.

To be considered, students must apply for admission to FGCU and submit their name and FGCU student UIN (assigned at the time of FGCU application) to Dr. Coughlin (rcoughli@FGCU.edu) no later than March 20, 2023.

Kathleen Hessert is the CEO of Communication Concepts and Sports Media Challenge, a national brand-building and reputation management consultancy.

After nearly a decade as an award-winning television anchor, reporter and talk show host for CBS and NBC, Hessert changed competitive arenas. Since 1984 she has been a reputation management consultant to C-Level executives in major corporations, government, sports, and entertainment. Her clients have included some of the nations and the world's most renowned personal and organizational brands. She has guided the protection and enrichment of the brands of major financial, manufacturing, media, entertainment, and educational organizations as well as world leaders in Olympic, professional and collegiate sports. Kathleen's work in crisis management spans corporate mergers and acquisitions, environmental disasters, financial crises, deaths, sexual harassment, and abuse cases to name just a few.

Hessert's social media expertise gained international acclaim with her 2008 launch of NBA super star Shaquille O'Neal on Twitter. Though known widely for her extensive work in the sports and entertainment field, Hessert was also the mastermind behind a major social initiative supporting Pope Francis' historic 2015 visit to the United States and created the internationally acclaimed PopeEmoji series.

In 2009, Hessert recognized a broader and more fundamental need for social expertise and crisis management and became involved in Humanitarian Assistance and Disaster Relief. She served as HADR's lead social strategist and activation for Exercise24, an international disaster preparedness exercise for 79 nations sponsored by the U.S. Navy. Hessert was the Communications Chair of Operation Dragon Fire, a design collaborative between the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), and National Voluntary Organizations Active in Disaster (NVOAD), to develop technology solutions to aid decision makers during disaster. In 2022, Hessert joined Humanity 2.0, a Vatican initiative to identify barriers to human flourishing and identify innovative solutions in areas ranging from international development to education and space exploration and colonization among others.

She is a thought-leader on the impact of Generation Z and believes in the value of applying and integrating digital media and the Metaverse across all disciplines. Hessert is a much sought-after speaker on national and international stages and as an interviewee in business and general media.

Hessert graduated from St. Mary's of Notre Dame with a B.A. in Humanistic Studies in 1974 and studied Communications at the University of Notre Dame. She is married to Tim Gunderman and has two children and six grandchildren. She serves on the Catholic Diocese of Charlotte Lay Review Board since 2004 and the Advisory Board for Catholic Charities Diocese of Venice.

Kathleen and Tim live in Bonita Springs, Florida and Charlotte, North Carolina.

The Naples Council on World Affairs wishes to acknowledge the dedication and generous donation of time and expertise by numerous individuals...
